Introduction

One of a Kind

An irreplaceable institution in the heart of West London, where culinary delights intertwine with the vibrant, cultural tapestry of Holland Park.

Tucked discreetly on Portland Road, Julie's stands as an emblem of unparalleled originality. Within its walls, every detail, from the ambiance to the cuisine, bears the mark of distinction and authenticity.

Not merely a restaurant, but a reflection of the neighbourhood's vibrant, bohemian spirit and a place where sparkling, special memories are made. As Julie's reintroduces itself to London's restaurant pantheon, this is an invitation to experience an atmosphere like no other.

Alcove Dining

Located in the Lower Ground Floor dining room, Julie's offers an intimate dining setting for groups of 9 who may wish for a less formal event. Each alcove can host up to 9 guests comfortably, all the while delivering the ambience of the dining room. The alcoves are designed with curtains, should guests require privacy for those confidential meetings or celebratory moments.

Kindly note, all groups of 9 & more are required to dine from a choice of set menu

Shrouded in secrecy and steeped in legend, Table 44 is Julie's most intimate and charming table for two. Once whispered about as "The G Spot," this discreet corner offers more than just a seat, it offers an experience. Tucked away from view, guests are treated to a hidden menu crafted from Julie's most beloved dishes and drinks, reserved only for those in the know.

Candlelit and cocooned in rich velvet and shadows, the space feels like a world of its own, atmospheric, immersive, and quietly indulgent. Perfect for special occasions, meaningful conversations, or unexpected surprises. Table 44 is available to book throughout the day, should you wish to impress, escape, or simply enjoy something a little different.

Menus

Chef Owen has thoughtfully crafted menus for every occasion. Whether you're hosting a business breakfast, a ladies' lunch, or a birthday dinner, Julie's is here to make your decision effortless.

All our menus are served family-style; therefore, we kindly ask guests to select one menu for the entire group.

Our menus are seasonal, ensuring we serve only the freshest, highest-quality ingredients.

We support British farming and purpose driven regenerative agriculture practices. Our fish are wild, and line caught & our meat is pasture fed. We also practice no single use plastic where possible and we actively work to reduce waste.

We can't wait to welcome you to Julie's!
